

Peninsula Piers and Pinots @ Flinders Foreshore

Sunday 9 March 2008

12 – 3pm

Head for Flinders foreshore, adjacent to the Pier, and you will be welcomed by the region's winemakers who will showcase their Pinots with sensational matching local food and produce. Pinot Noir, Pinot Grigio, Pinot Meunier will all feature down by the bay. Buy a glass along with tasty 'grazing' morsels and enjoy the spectacular yet intimate environment - a beach side lunch to remember.

Mornington Peninsula is surrounded by Port Phillip Bay and Western Port Bay - a unique maritime location offers the perfect 'sea change' - even if it's just for a day! It also has a special effect on the region's pinots. They relish the long late ripening of a gentle autumn that creates wines with outstanding flavours, balanced natural acidity and fine tannins.

As the grand finale to events throughout the region and in Melbourne, as part of the Melbourne Food & Wine Festival, just follow the flags at Flinders Foreshore to the finish line of the Piers & Pinots yacht race. Mornington Peninsula vigneron's will showcase their pinots with matched food by The Long Table. Wineries include Tucks Ridge, Box Stallion, Lindenderry, Red Hill Estate, Morning Sun Estate, Montalto, Elgee Park, The Cups Estate, Stonier Wines, The Duke Vineyard, Willow Creek Vineyard, Baillieu Vineyard, Winbirra, Nazaaray, T'Gallant, Rahona Valley, Rigel Wines and Whinstone.

Venue: Flinders Foreshore adjacent to Pier

Cost $20 includes complimentary MPVA wine glass plus all tastings with notes provided. Also Mornington Peninsula seachange wine packs available for sale on the day
